Wildhorse Ranch Expectations

Every girl should arrive at our ranch ready and equipped both physically and emotionally and with the proper gear and clothing for a real ranch experience. Zero tolerance for any kind of bullying of staff, girls or horses. We reserve the right to dismiss any camper that is not compatible with the camp programs.

You must advise us verbally about any existing conditions: medical, physical, emotional, medications etc. before registering your child.

- All girls must wear CSA approved riding helmet.
- Weight limit of 180 pounds

Technology: No techno game items and we recommend cell phones be used to take pictures or if you need to text home only at bedtime.... No cell phones on the rides.

Cancellation Policy: No refunds, if the cancellation is accompanied by a doctor's note the camp can be transferred to another date within a year. Wildhorse Mountain Ranch reserves the right to cancel or alter any aspect of our program – weather can be a factor, so we do alternate activities.

Lost, Stolen or Damaged Property: Wildhorse Ranch is not responsible for a camper's personal belongings. In addition, campers and their parent/s will be held responsible for damage to, or loss of Wildhorse Ranch property or equipment. Lost and found items are donated.

If your child violates these conditions you will be required to come and get them. NO refunds

For all Campers & Parent/s: I have accurately completed the Registration Package and have read, understand and agree to the Policies outlined above.
